MATRIMONIAL.

The following invitation has been received: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hooge announce the marriage of their daughter, Katherine Lee, to Mr. James Colson Tally, on Wednesday January the twentieth nineteen hundred and nine, New Albany, Indiana. At home after January twenty-seventh, Poplarville, Mississippi.

A wedding which took place on Friday, Jan. 15, in the parlors of the Windsor Hotel, and which was to have been kept a secret owing to parental objection, has been given out for publication. The bride was Miss Lula Runyan, of Maysville, and the bridegroom, Mr. Miller F. Powell, of Lexington. They were married by the Rev. M. T. Chandler, of the Methodist church.

Judge Dundon's Juvenile Court.

The ten young colored boys who were arrested for robbing Lavin & Connell's grocery were before Judge Dundon for trial Saturday morning, the youthfulness of the prisoners attracting quite a crowd to the trial. Judge Dundon disposed of the cases as follows:

Dallas Wilson, five years in the Reform School; Denis Leer, five years; James Ross, 3 years; Noah Prakes, 2 years, and Sam Biddle, 1 year, the latter sentence being suspended pending good behavior. The ages of these boys ranged from 11 to 15 years.

Frank Johnson and Stewart Lawson, two other youthful negro boys under arrest for stealing milk were ordered taken to jail, and, after being severely chastised by their parents in the presence of the jailer, were permitted to go.

Frank Batts, a negro under arrest for carrying concealed weapons, was given a fine of $10 and 30 days in jail.

Board of Supervisors Adjourned

The Board of Supervisors adjourned Friday afternoon after two weeks' session of equalizing the assessed valuation of property in Bourbon. The members of the Board, consisting of Warren Rogers, chairman, and Newton Mitchell, Joe Ewalt, M. J. Murphy, W. G. McClintock, E. E. Sparks and W. G. Talbot, were entertained at dinner by County Clerk Pearce Paton. Other guests were: Deputy County Clerk Thomas Savage, County Assessor Henry S. Cuywood, Deputy Assessor Lyttleton Furnell, Judge Denis Dundon and Deputy Sheriff A. S. Thompson. The Board fixed the assessment of the ten banks of Bourbon county and all their individual holders of notes and other securities at 80 per cent of their face value, the banks being assessed upon their capital stock and surplus funds.

Larue County Votes Dry.

In an election Saturday, Larue, Abraham Lincoln's native county, voted dry by a majority of 108, the vote being over four to one against license. Church bells were rung at intervals during the day, children marched and the brass band furnished music. Prayer meetings were also held, and hot coffee was provided by the ladies at the voting places.

Beach's Latest Roundup.

Beach Hargis ended his latest roundup by shooting himself in the foot. After subjugating several residents on Frozen Creek Friday, he proceeded to return to Jackson, shooting at all animate objects on his way. He accidentally wounded himself. His wound was dressed at the home of a negro, and he was taken to his mother's house in Jackson, where he is being attended by his brother-in-law, Dr. Hogg. Amputation may be necessary.

News of Twenty Years Ago.

The following news notes are taken from the Bourbon News of Jan. 25, 1889:

Dr. Chas. N. Fithian and Frank P. Lowry have leased the Grand Opera House.

Wheat has dropped to 90 cents in the local market.

J. W. Ferguson received a letter from Hon. Wm. Lindsay, President of Kentucky Midland R. R., stating that he would have party engineers in Bourbon this week.

In compliance with recent Legislative act, the following county physicians have registered at the County Clerk's office.

Jos. Fithian, aged 57; born in Philadelphia; Jefferson Medical College, Phil., diploma March 11th, 1854.

A. G. Sitt, aged 70; born in Nicholas county; University of Louisville; diploma March 5, 1852.

C. B. Smith, aged 25; born in Millersburg; University of Louisville; diploma March 2, 1886.

John Bowen, aged 34; born in Maury county, Tenn.; Hospital Medical College, N. Y.; diploma, March 1, 1878.

W. C. Wikerson, aged 35; born in Madison county; University of Louisville; diploma February 25, 1881.

R. T. Wood, aged 35; born at Mt. Olivet; Ohio Medical College; diploma, February 24, 1878.

J. B. Smith, aged 54; born in Delaware county, N. Y.; University of Louisville, diploma March 3, 1857.

Wm. Kenney, aged 71, born at Millersburg; Louisville Medical Institute; diploma March 1845.

The following pharmaciatists passed examinations and registered:

Chas. J. Clark, W. T. Brooks, J. A. Wilson, J. A. Stewart and J. A. Lyle.

Thos. Costello, of Indianapolis, was here yesterday visiting his millinery customers.

John Schwartz won diamond ring raffled by Doug Armstrong by throwing 42 with the dice.

Peter S. Anderson, of North Middletown, bought of Evans & Anderson, 18,000 pounds of tobacco at eight cents.

'Squire John T. McClure, one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens, died yesterday morning, aged 73 years. The 'Squire had't an enemy in the world.

Milton Young, of Lexington, refused $5,000 for his two-year-old, Helter-Skelter by Pell Mell.

Blind Tiger Indictments.

Thirty-five indictments were returned in the Boyle county Circuit Court against parties running "blind tigers." This does pretty well for the model little city of Danville.
